PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the Production Center 1P1c.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank/assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

A military installation is located on the south side of Novaya Miropol, approximately 12 kilometers (km) east of Polonnoye (Figure 1). It covers about 145 acres and is road served.

The major buildings in the installation are (Figures 2 and 3) four multistory barracks, six administration buildings, eight storage buildings, five vehicle storage buildings, two support buildings, and a guard tower. A small revetted building at the north end of the area is a possible ammunition burning facility.

Training facilities serving the installation are two small-arms ranges and an athletic field.

The installation is active and little change has been noted [redacted] Improvement in quality of the photography reveals buildings that are not new, but could not be identified on earlier photography.
